Kintamani Tour This tour will show you the exotic side of Balinese Arts and Culture, where dances are a major part of Balinese culture. You will experience the Barong and Keris dance, one of the best known and loved dances. Performed in Batu Bulan Village, on a small covered open-air theatre, including a full Balinesestyle Gamelan Orchestra, spectacular costumes, humour and excitement. You'll be captivated by the story about the eternal fight between good and evil. Continue your journey to the shopping area, where you will be spoilt for choice on some retail therapy. Options include Mas, Kemenuh for woodcarving; Celuk, known for intricate gold and silverware; Ubud, for painting or perhaps a Batik factory for some lovely locally made fabric. The next stop is a visit to Bedulu, to see the Elephant Cave, an old Monastery from 11th century. Then on to the real highlight of the day, which is Kintamani; perched dramatically on top of the crater rim of one of the volcano mountains, Batur. Enjoy the magnificent and breath-taking view from the restaurant of crater lake, lava flows and volcanic peaks. On the way back, you can take some of the Balinese countryside and terraced fields, as you reflect on the experience of this highly recommended tour.	Daily	Full Day Starts at 08h00	USD 81 (Min 2 pax)
Nusa Penida Trip from Bali (West Nusa Penida) Embark on an unforgettable day trip to Nusa Penida, Bali's enchanting neighboring island. Enjoy a convenient hotel pick-up and fast boat transfer from Sanur Port, reaching the island in just 30 minutes. Your friendly local driver will guide you to the island's top sights, beginning with Angel's Billabong, a stunning natural infinity pool where you can take a refreshing dip—just follow safety tips along the way. Continue to Broken Beach, a dramatic coastal arch offering breathtaking views and the chance to spot manta rays from above. Next, visit the iconic Kelingking Beach, famous for its towering cliffs and T-rex–shaped headland—one of the island's most photographed spots. Your final stop is Crystal Bay, where white sand and turquoise waters create the perfect place to relax before heading back to Bali.	Daily	Full Day Starts at 08h00	USD 105 (Min 2 pax)

Ocean Temple We will take you towards the West Coast of the island, where your first stop will be the beautiful temple of Mengwi Royal Family; Taman Ayun Temple.
